Introduction

The UGC-Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre (formerly known as UGC-HRDC), Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University Hyderabad, was established in the year 2000 and sponsored by University Grants Commission, New Delhi. The UGC MMTTC organizes Orientation Programmes, Faculty Induction Programmes, Refresher Courses, Short Term Courses, NEP Orientation & Sensitization Programme and Workshops on thrust areas for in-service teachers and also for newly appointed teaching faculty on a regular basis, to update the knowledge and skills in their respective fields.

The Short Term Course will enable the teachers to:

- Provide opportunities for teachers in service, to exchange experience with their peers and learn mutually from each other:
- Provide a forum for serving teachers to keep themselves abreast of the latest advances in various subjects:
- Create the culture of learning and self improvement among the teachers:
- Provide opportunities to further widen their knowledge and pursue research studies, and
- Give an introduction to new methods and innovations in higher education and enlighten them so that the participants can in turn develop their own innovative methods of instruction.

During the current academic year 2024-25, a Short Term Course on “Learner-Centered Pedagogy” is proposed to be organized during 17-03-2025 to 24-03-2025, in the campus of JNT University, Hyderabad. The number of participants is limited to maximum of 40, and the selection will be on ‘first-come-first-serve’ basis.

Eligibility
